Facility News

We lost out on a sealed bid for a wheelchair accessible van being auctioned by City of Hartford Taxi Service. The good news is they will be replacing another of their fleet this summer thereby putting up one more for sealed bid. Activities Coordinator, Lucinda “Goo” Gohman-Kramer, is having good success on a fundraising campaign to make a better bid on the next accessible taxi. By networking with the Washington County Chamber of Commerce, “Hartford Proud” facebook page, and our own Facebook page we have been able to raise three thousand dollars just by asking our generous community. Dave’s Lane Wheelchair Bowling Bash got us started with a $1,500 donation. Dynamic Pet Palace, Hartford Jaycees and an individual donor have helped us toward our goal of $8000.

The City of Hartford Taxi van.

Our staff and families will be manning a Bratwurst Fry Fundraiser at the Hartford Piggly Wiggly on Saturday May 18th from 9 am-3 pm. Hope to see you there for some Good Food and a Good Cause.

A Note from Your Administrator

We welcomed Robert B. “Bob” to our little family on April Fool’s Day. He comes to us from Milwaukee so that he can be closer to family in Iron Ridge. Bob is a retired maintenance worker for the City of Milwaukee. An avid reader, he has generously added to our little library and is looking for new things to read.
